

Vicki Blight

Presenter, Absolute Radio & Absolute Radio 90's & 00's

Vicki Blight is one of the key presenters across Absolute Radio's network of stations.

She can currently be heard presenting weekend breakfast on Absolute Radio, plus drive time for Absolute Radio 90s and mid-mornings on Absolute Radio 00s.

It was at Cardiff University that Vicki got involved in student radio whilst studying Biochemistry and Medical Molecular Biology. She went on to win 'Best Female Presenter' at the Student Radio Awards in 2002.

Since then Vicki has shown her versatility as a broadcaster in a wide variety of on air roles on stations including BBC Radio 1, BBC Radio 6 Music, Heart, XFM, Galaxy, 106 Century FM and Red Dragon FM.

Being an accomplished compere, Vicki has hosted many live events including the Hard Rock Calling Sessions, Hard Rock Rising - Global Battle of the Bands, Let's Rock The Moor, Let's Rock Bristol, Pinktober and the Cardiff University Student Media Awards.

She's also a very versatile and successful voiceover artist with credits including commercials for some of music's biggest names such as Rihanna, One Direction and John Legend. She has voiced large campaigns for brands including Schwarzkopf, iTunes, Disney and Spotify and she is the continuity voice for Sky Movies Disney and Channel 5's 5*.

Currently involved with the Cervical Cancer Charity Jo's Trust, Vicki will complete the 100km Ride The Night cycling event in London to raise awareness and money for the charity. She wrote an awareness piece for the Huffington Post in the early part of 2014, having herself, undergone treatment for abnormal cells.

Vicki writes music reviews for the Daily Express and is an active participant in Student Radio mentoring. She became a Life Honorary Member of the Student Radio Association in 2012.
